The Southwest String Quartet is known throughout the state of Arizona for classical recital performances, children's programs, senior citizen concerts and string quartet workshops. They perform yearly recitals in Tucson, Green Valley, Sun City, Phoenix, Scottsdale and other communities in Arizona. Their repertoire spans the music of the Baroque, Classical, Romantic and Contemporary periods and frequently features works of twentieth century American composers.

"The Southwest String Quartet showed that they are excellent role models. Focused but light and relaxed by nature, they brought playing of precision, life and rich glowing tone to the works by Haydn, Dvorak, Peter Schickele and Vivaldi. Both in the music making and in the engaging way in which they spoke with the crowd about the music, the foursome projected to all in the audience a sense of how beautiful, challenging and fulfilling playing chamber music can be."
